Cancellation policy

If you cancel less than 6 weeks before the start of the course no refund is payable. We recommend that you consider taking out a holiday insurance policy to cover the risk of cancellation, such as a policy from www.moneysupermarket.com.

If David were unable to run a course due to illness, full fees (including deposit) would be refunded.

If David were unable to complete a course, fees would be refunded on a pro-rata basis.

We reserve the right to cancel any course and return all fees if bookings are not sufficient to make it economic. We also reserve the right to change the content of a week's course according to demand. This is unlikely but necessary to avoid turning away keen tool tuners if the more specialised courses do not get booked. In this eventuality, full fees would be refunded if the changed course were not acceptable.
